

The time to fund feminist futures is now

3.4 billion people now live in countries where governments spend more money paying off debt than investing in health or education UNCTAD warns.

There is no money for community kitchens, but there is always money to keep capitalism going. The issue is not a lack of money, it's about how money is distributed.

Malena Vivanco, Walking the Talk
Researcher

Cancel debt, fund feminist futures

Across Africa and other debt-burdened regions and countries, debt payments drain public budgets and strangle governments' ability to deliver on gender justice and women's rights.

Read the document