

The time to fund feminist futures is now

Global military spending reached a historic high of 2.7 trillion USD in 2024.

Projections suggest that these expenses could reach between 4.7 and 6.6 trillion USD in 2035!

While feminist organizations have a median budget of only 22,000 USD per year according to AWID.

This is not a funding crisis; it is a crisis of solidarity and justice.

Maria Fernanda Espinosa, Executive Director at Global Women Leaders Voices

The issue isn't a lack of resources. It's that they're used in ways that hurt people and the planet.

Feminist movements don't get the support they need, while wealth keeps concentrating among a few, and spending on the military and harmful industries continues to grow.

Fund feminist organizations now
